SUMMARY

Sam Rosenfarb, CPA, ABV, CFE, CVA, CBA, is Managing Director of Rosenfarb LLC, a firm of forensic accounting and valuation experts, with offices in New York City and New Jersey. He originates, supervises and reviews client engagements in the areas of financial consulting, investigations, valuations and expert witness services. With more than 40 years of experience, including Partner-in-Charge of the forensic accounting practice at a large CPA firm, Mr. Rosenfarb is a proven and demonstrated leader. Mr. Rosenfarb's forensic accounting skills arise from his significant experience advising business owners, as well as the investigation of fraud, financial damages and business crimes.

Mr. Rosenfarb is frequently retained by clients to provide deposition and trial testimony. Throughout his career, he has testified as an expert witness in numerous matters including damage calculations, matrimonial litigation, accounting malpractice, estate issues, partnership disputes, business valuations and insolvencies. Mr. Rosenfarb has served as a court appointed expert and arbitrator, including appointment to the Panel of Arbitrators by the American Arbitration Association.

Mr. Rosenfarb is a recognized industry expert and has presented seminars and continuing legal education courses on various topics including calculating lost profits, valuation techniques, mergers and acquisitions, valuation aspects of divorce, forensic accounting and alternative dispute resolutions. In addition, he has hosted the cable television programs "White Collar Crime Report" and "It's All About Money."
